

The Firebird (1910)

Choreographer: Michel Fokine; Composer: Igor Stravinsky

In this story of enchantment based on Russian fairy tales, a prince encounters a group of maidens, as well as a radiant "bird of fire." Through the help of the Firebird, the prince conquers an evil enchanter and frees those he has held captive, including the beautiful Firebird and the maidens.